Notes for Mayor Daniel Rapine
3From a footnote on page 736 in "Across The Years In Prince George's County" by Effie Gwynn Bowie:          'Daniel Rapine, died May 11, 1826, in his 59th year, according to the "National Intelligencer" of Washington, D. C. The paper adds that he was among the oldest and most representative inhabitants of the city, having filled some of "its most respectable offices, among them, that of mayor." His funeral was from his late residence. He was born in Germantown, Pennsylvania, says his obituary, and he came to Washington soon after the city was laid out. He was mayor in 1812.'
