Notes for Samuel C. Hite
Atwater's List of dead shows only an S. C. Height of the Co. "H" 55th Pennsylvania Infantry. While a search of the National Archives (Sierra Generations CD #3) shows the only S. Hite or Height from Pennsylvania that served to be a Samuel C. Hite of Co. "A" 55th Pennsylvania Infantry. Perhaps the Company letter in Atwater's List, which he hand wrote while a prisoner at Andersonville, was mistakenly transcribed as an "H" instead of an "A", an easy mistake to make. And, like John Aurandt who was listed as Jacob Amandt by Atwater, the last name could easily have mis-transcribed as Height is a more commonly recognized spelling of the pronunciation of the name Hite. Since the owner was dead and Atwater was working from prison the spelling could not be verified. Further research on the internet revealed at a Cambria Co. USGenWeb site (http://searches.rootsweb.com/cgi-bin/iftch2?/u1/data/pa+index+265943632882+F) a listing for 'Samuel C. Hite 2/23/64 9/15/64 Died prisoner "Andersonville, GA". Note the date differs from the date published by Dorence Atwater⁴ but corresponds to that of Dorothea W. Feigley⁵.
